Three Men and One Boy Hit by Bullets

Wilmington, Del., June 22-A northern mob led by a Virginian burned a negro at the stake tonight within a few miles of Mason's Unc. The victim was George F. White, a negro just out of the workhouse, who was accused of having felonlously assaulted and stabled to death Miss Helen S. Bishop, the li-year-old daughter of Rev. E. A. Bishep. The erime of the negro was committed last Monday afternoon and ever since then there have been mutterings of lynching the man.

An effort was made last night to get White, but it failed. Tonight, however, as a result of the laws slowness and agitation on the part of these who cried safe from mob violence. for vengeance, a mob that was estimated at 4500 men and buys gathered in the neighborhood of Price's Corner, four miles from here. They came from every where, including Wilmington and the small towns to the south of Price's Corner. Last night's lack of a leader was supplied by a Virginian who identity in confusion could not be learned. The police of Wilmington and the constables there could not disperse the growing crowd. It was evident that hundreds came from mere curlosity, but once in the mob they became influence with the apirit prevading the throng and then actually joined it. The real leaders were few in number, but they did their work it was after 10 o'clock when the march to the workhouse, a mile away, was taken The chief warden of the workhouse and his guards, who have been on almost constant duty, since the negro was landed in the prison, had been warned of the coming of the mob, and prepared to deafend the man at all costs.

Armed with pistols, shotguns and other weapons, the mob soon reached the jail. A batter of railroad ties soon carried away the outer door of the workhalted by a hall of bullets from the de out, but the braver ones in the attackquickly carried to the year and attended by these who were not brave enough to be at the front. Three of the wounded were men and the other was a boy None of them in the confusion could be be Peter Smith, aged 17 years,

Rewistance on the part of the negro was eless, for his hands were tied behind him. Then the murch to the place of execution, Just as though it was a murch to the gallows in a prison, was taken up. It then became evident that a plan of execution had been previously arranged. but who the planners were is not known

A stake had been arranged by an adsoaked with oil, was ignited and the horrible execution was on. White suffering intense amony, fainted, and his body hung real. However, a large number of per- non-support velopments. The failure of the county court to give White a speedy trial is in a great measure responsible for tenight's tragedy. The citizens of Wilmington and an immediate trial and Attorney General Ward laid the matter before the court on Thursday with that end in view. The court, however, did not consider hustexpedient and the trial was set for the September term of court. With this decision of the court the marmurings of dignation of the people grew hourly. Sun ceeded. The verdict of the jury was that Miss Elshop came to her death from the effects of an assault committed upon her by one George White, a negro.

GIRL'S DESPERATE RESISTANCE. The victim, Miss Helen Bishop, daughter f S. A. Bishop, superintendent of the Ferris Industrial school, would have been 18 years old next October. She was a student of Wilmington High school, and was on her way home from the school last Monday afternoon when she was attacked. The Industrial school, four miles from here, where her parents made their nome, is about three-quarters of a mile from Price's Corner, where the girl usually left the trolley car when she came from school. Late Monday afternoon a farmer working in the field saw a young woman stagger and fall in the road. got up and fell again, and then she tried to crawl. The farmer and his sons went to her assistance, but when they reached the girl she was lying unconscious in the oud. They found her to be Miss Bishop She had three ugly gashes in her throat, her body was hadly scratched, and her clothing was torn in many places. In one hand she clutched a small penknife which she had used at school in sharpening pensils. There was evidence that Miss Bishop had made a desperate resistance in defense of her honor and her life. The wounded girl was taken home. and died the next afternoon without re-

MAN-HUNT INSTITUTED.

The entire neighborhood was almost in-stantly aroused, and a man-hunt was immediately instituted. Suspicion was soon fastened on George G. White, a negro who was just out of the workhouse and who was engaged as a laborer on the farm of Edward Woodward, near the scene of that night, and when taken into custody denied all knowledge of the crime. He was identified by several persons who said they saw him in the vicinity of the scene of the crime. A knife which Mrs. Woodward said belonged to him was found where the girl was assaulted. White was brought to Wilmington, but later was transferred to the county workhouse, where the officials thought he would be
